

Remembering Jim Clardy: 1971-2016

Fastener professional Jim Clardy, age 45, tragically lost his life in a motorcycle accident on Friday, July 29, 2016. He was born April 5, 1971, in Cleveland, Ohio.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 22 years, Wendi A. Clardy; his cherished daughters Meagan, Emma, and Sarah; his father Paul Y. Clardy; his sister Shannon (Jack) Jennings; as well many other family and friends.

Jim was most recently employed by Branam Fastening Systems in North Ridgeville, Ohio, where he had began working in early 2015. He had previously been at Endries and Fastenal. Jim will always be remembered for his kind heart – and his passion for success. He will also be remembered for his deep love for those around him, especially as a loving husband and father.

He was a graduate of Licking Valley High School and Baldwin Wallace University, where he was honored by each school's Hall of Fame for his outstanding accolades in football during high school and college. This passion for athletics was evident with his involvement in the Medina Athletic Boosters, where he was a past president.

Jim was especially known locally for his involvement as a servant leader at Heartland Community Church, where he was a leader in the youth group, men's groups, and active with the Heartland Riders, where he enjoyed spending time on his Harley Davidson.

Memorial contributions may be made to Heartland Community Church, P.O. Box 507, Medina, OH 44258.

