A new cohort for The Sales Leaders Excellence & Influence Course will begin January 4, 2022, according to Dave Kahle, President of Kahle Way® Sales Systems.

“This interactive, multi-media course is designed to equip B2B sales managers and sales leaders with a specific system of best practices so that they can lead their teams to dramatically improved performance,” Kahle said. “It includes our Kahle Way® Sales Management System, in which we have trained over 2,000 sales managers.”

The course combines live Zoom meetings with on-line instruction and the opportunity to interact with cohort members and a team of experts. Registration will end December 31, 2021, and the cohort is limited to the first 15 enrollees.
