

Pacific-West Fastener Association Fall Conference: Sept. 28 - Oct. 1, 2016, in Portland

Join Pac-West in Portland for their fall conference.

Presenters include:

- Jason Bader, of The Distribution Team, who will help you learn how to analyze the performance of your inventory so you can make more prudent investments in the future. The goal is to not only buy smarter but to get a better return on the dollars you've already spent;
- Jamie Lawrence of AVK Industrial Products, Tim Roberto, Jr. of Star Stainless Screw, and Simmi Sakhuja of Stelfast, Inc., who will address the state of the fastener industry; and
- Carmen Vertullo of Carver Consulting, who will provide current and topical information about fastener platings and coatings.

These presentations and much more are in store for you at the Pac-West fall conference.
