

Kent Carter to Join Wrought Washer as National Sales Manager

Wrought Washer, the leader in the domestic washer industry, is pleased to announce and welcome Kent Carter as National Sales Manager. Kent will be a valuable contributor in the areas of marketing and business strategy, all while driving revenue.

“We are fortunate to be able to add someone of Kent’s talent to our organization,” said Jeff Liter, president, Wrought Washer. “His diverse experiences allow him to make an immediate impact in the market as well as with our management team.”

Kent comes to Wrought Washer Mfg. with many years of management experience in various aspects of sales and manufacturing. His background includes inside and outside sales, plant management, international import/export management and sales engineering. Kent has been part of the fastener industry for more than 25 years.

“I am excited at the opportunity to grow with such a well respected company,” Carter said. “Wrought Washer has a reputation as a trusted source for washers and stampings.”

Headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin with 225,00 square feet of manufacturing and multiple regional stocking warehouses, Wrought Washer is the leader in standard and specialty washers. For more than a century, Wrought has been supplying high-quality washers and flat stampings for a broad range of markets including automotive, agricultural, truck, electrical, appliance, construction and industrial equipment. Visit www.wroughtwasher.com.